

IUE MICROFICHE SPECTRAL ATLAS AVAILABLE

We have available a few copies of the IUE Low Dispersion Microfiche Atlas that was produced by the United Kingdom's Science and Engineering Research Council - Rutherford Appleton Laboratory. The atlas contains microfiche plots of almost all low dispersion spectra obtained through late 1984. These are useful for quick-look inspection of the data and evaluation of data quality.

Copies of the atlas were distributed last year to a number of astronomical departments and institutions. Individuals or astronomical groups who would like to receive one of the remaining copies may send their requests to:

IUE Microfiche Atlas
